SUSIE A. PINKLEY

2LT Susie Pinkley was one of the last nurses who joined her fellow nurses at the station hospital at Tuskegee Army Air Field (TAAF) in 1946. She had been stationed at Fort Devens in Massachusetts beforehand. Her husband, a disabled veteran, died the previous year.

According to the base roster of July 15, 1946, 2LT Pinkley was one of the five nurses left to close down nursing operations at TAAF. In the March 15, 1947, Dozier Nurse Newsletter from Lockbourne Army Air Base (LAAB), LT Pinkley reported to LAAB from TAAF in July 1946 or thereafter. She was a graduate of Freedmen's Hospital School for nurses in Washington, D.C.

DOTA Susie A. Pinkley is listed on page #326 of the "Known Participants" in the Ted Johnson database.
